

What do you think?

An object is called “art” for many reasons—the way it looks, the way it’s made, the way it stands for something, the way it makes us think or feel. People have a lot of ideas about why something should be called “art.” And many times, people don’t agree!

Look at the images on the disks and read the backs for clues.

Is it art, or isn’t it? Decide for yourself!

no

yes

yikes!

definitely not!

very nice!

amazing

my hamster could have done better!

I don't get it

weird but ok

bee-yoo-tee-ful

what were they thinking?

maybe you had to be there

skillfully done

ok, but I need to know more
